

Deep Sea World Aquarium seeks permanent Catering Assistants for our Café/Restaurant The BRIDGE

Positions are part-time although a full time contract would be considered for the right candidate.

Remuneration complies with NMW/NLW

Are you passionate about food?

Do you want to show your creative flair for food presentation and wow guests with your service excellence? Do you understand that our guests are looking for a chance to relax and refuel and that our catering offer is part of our overall guest experience? If so, Deep Sea World has an exciting opportunity to join The Bridge team as a Kitchen Assistant in our well appointed Café/Restaurant.

About the Role

As a member of this team you will be preparing food and serving our guests directly from the hotplate. It is a varied role so while kitchen duties are a key requirement, you could be working front of house or working tables and so the ability to be adaptable and provide a friendly welcoming service to every guest is essential. Whether you're keeping things top notch front of house or getting stuck in behind the scenes, you'll have a smile for everyone you encounter.

About you

You will be a real team player with good communication skills and the ability to interact with our guests. You will have flair and passion for well presented food, a can do attitude and be a responsible and reliable team member. Experience in catering and food hygiene legislation would be a real advantage. This role will also require you to work regular weekends and bank holidays.
